

UNDER CONTROL?
ALCOHOL AND DRUG REGULATION, PAST AND PRESENT
 21-23RD JUNE 2013

Thursday 20th June
5.30pm – 7pm Lower ground café Registration
6pm – 7pm John Snow A Alcohol and Drugs History Society Presidential Address: Professor Scott Martin (Bowling Green State University)
7pm-7.30pm Room LG8 FRINGE EVENT Ether with Bompas and Parr: Practical talk and tasting of ether
Friday 21st June
8.30 – 9.30 Lower ground café Registration
9.30 – 11.00 Parallel sessions 1
1.1 Room LG 6 Drugs, regulation and policy Chair: Dr Patricia Barton	1.2 Room LG 7 Histories of tobacco control Chair: TBC	1.3 Room LG 8 Policing and surveillance Chair: Dr James Kneale	1.4 Room LG 9 New drinks, new cultures Chair: Dr Angela McShane
Micaela de Sousa (University of Coimbra) Drug regulation in Portugal and joining the EEC 1986-2012 Joe Spillane (University of Florida) What happens when we write from the frontlines of the Drug War?: A criminal justice perspective Jorrit Kamminga (University of Valencia) The recent history of shared responsibility in international drug control – a study of Tumaco, Santa Maria and Meta, Colombia (1998-2012)	Petre Matei (University of Bucharest) On tobacco in Romania: from Devil's herb to dangerous drug Elizabeth Lublin (Wayne State University) Controlling youth and tobacco in Meiji-period Japan	Paul Jennings (Bradford University) Common objects and rare events: Policing drinkers and drinking places in late-Victorian and Edwardian England Alexandre Marchant (University Paris Ouest) 'Enforcing the prohibition on the ground': Police practices in the matter of heroin trafficking in France 1970s -80s Elliott Hicks (University of Essex) Policing the London drug culture 1945-71	Amy Mittelman (Independent) Creating bourbon: Distillers and the federal government 1862-1963 Elizabeth Gabay (Independent) A side effects of gin regulations: the development of punch in Britain
11.00 – 11.30 Lower ground café Tea and coffee

11.30 – 12.30 John Snow A: KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Professor James Simpson (Carlos III University, Madrid): Producer cooperatives, institutional change and politics in the wine industry, 1880-1980
12.30 – 1.30 Lower ground café Lunch
1.30 – 3.00 Parallel sessions 2
2.1 Room LG 6 Addiction in Asia 1 Chair: Dr Saeyoung Park	2.2 Room LG 9 Regulating spaces of intoxication Chair: Dr James Kneale	2.3 Room LG 8 Making the carceral state Chair: Prof Joe Spillane	2.4 Room LG 7 Barmaids, pubs and control Chair: Dr Paul Jennings
Miriam Kingsberg (University of Colorado) Subjects into 'addicts': Opium and imperialism in Japanese Manchuria 1905-45 Jim Mills (University of Strathclyde) India's hemp drug addicts: The cannabis user in science and empire 1870-1939	Richard Robinson (University of Helsinki) High spirits: The impact of tourists on alcohol's history in Brighton and Hanko Panagiotis Zestanakis (University of Crete) Drug addiction and geographies of leisure in 1980s Athens: An interactive relation? Alan Latham (UCL) The common sense spatialities of liquor licensing: Regulating alcohol in New Zealand and the 1989 Sale of Liquor Act	Marsha E. Barrett (Rutgers University) 'Politics is a rough business': Nelson Rockefeller's war on crime and racial liberalism Michael J. Durfee (SUNY Buffalo) 'Taking back the streets of America': Black-lash and the origins of crack-era reform	Fiona Measham (University of Durham) The 'barmaid question': Victorian attempts to ban women from working in English public houses David Beckingham (Cambridge University) Under whose control?: Banning the barmaid in early 20 th century Glasgow Amanda Fine (Open University) Queen Bee?: Reflections on ethnographic interviews with a bar manageress
3.00 – 3.15 Break
3.15 – 4.45 Parallel sessions 3
3.1 Room LG 6 American drug revivals Chair: Amy Mittelman	3.2 Room LG 7 The Minimum Unit Pricing story Chair: Dr Henry Yeomans	3.3 Room LG 8 Tobacco and cocaine in Asia Chair: Prof Jim Mills	3.4 Room LG 9 Addiction through the ages Chair: Dr Angus Bancroft
William J. Rorabaugh (University of Washington) High times: Hippies and marijuana in the San Francisco Bay Area, 1960s-70s Claire Clark (Emory University) The return of heroin: The crisis of the 1960s and the revolution in drug treatment	Srinivasa Vittal Katikireddi (MRC Social and Public Health Sciences Unit) The development of MUP in Scotland: A policy case study Chris Patterson (MRC Social and Public Health Sciences Unit) A quantitative overview of UK newsprint representations of the MUP policy debate Shona Hilton (MRC Social and Public Health Sciences Unit) UK newsprint reporting of key stakeholders' claims about MUP: A qualitative content analysis	Saeyoung Park (Davidson College) 'One mind', one nation under tobacco: North – South Korean relations and patriotic smoking since 1980 Zheng Yangwen (University of Manchester) The political redefinition of tobacco in Maoist China Patricia Barton (University of Strathclyde) Pharmaceutical and medical theory: Charting the addictive lure of cocaine in South Asia and Britain 1880-1915	Virginia Berridge (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine) Addiction through the ages Jacek Moskalewicz and Grazyna Herzynska (Warsaw Institute of Psychiatry and Neurology) The changing meaning of addiction in Polish medical journals in the late 19 th and early 20 th centuries Alex Mold (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine) From inebriety to addiction: terminology and concepts in the UK 1860-1930

4.45 – 5.00 Lower ground café Tea and coffee
5.00 – 6.30 Parallel sessions 4
4.1 Room LG 6 Moderating risk Chair: Prof William Rorabaugh	4.2 Room LG 7 Drugs and hospitalisation Chair: Prof Virginia Berridge	4.3 Room LG 9 Drinking in the home Chair: Dr Fiona Hutton	4.4 Room LG 8 Addiction in Asia 2 Chair: Dr Miriam Kingsberg
Charlotte Jones and James Kneale (UCL) The Temple of Temperance: The role of the Turkish bath as an antidote to drunkenness in Victorian Britain Henry Yeomans (University of Leeds) Blurred visions: Experts, evidence and the promotion of moderate drinking Angela McShane (Victoria and Albert Museum) The Goldilocks and the Three Bears routine: A material inquiry into drinking 'too much' and 'just enough' in Early Modern England	Jesper Kragh (University of Copenhagen) Trajectories of morphine in Denmark, 1870-1955 Zhang Yong-An and Chen Lu (Shanghai University) The meeting of West and East: Western medicine and Chinese opium addicts in Chapei anti-opium hospital, 1935-40	Adrian Barton (University of Plymouth) 'I don't really like the pub: Reflections on young people and pre-loading alcohol John Foster (University of Greenwich) Drinking away from licensed premises (mostly at home): The link between risk and time Angus Bancroft (Edinburgh University) Alcohol rituals and the problem of pleasure: The case of pre-drinking	Felicia Yap (London School of Economics) Addiction in colonial Malaya and Singapore during the early 20 th century Luke Gibbon (University of Strathclyde) Users or abusers?: '150 million cattle and horses of British India', opium and international drug control debates c. 1920-60 Stephen Snelders (University of Utrecht) The new lepers and the old: The global framing and treatment of drug use and leprosy c. 1900
6.30 Lower ground café CONFERENCE RECEPTION
Saturday 22 nd June
9.30 – 11.00 Parallel sessions 5
5.1 Room John Snow A The politics of drink in Britain Chair: Dr John Foster	5.2 Room LG 7 Drugs, alcohol and socialism Chair: Dr Howard Padwa	5.3 Room LG 8 Colonial and postcolonial histories Chair: Prof Jim Mills
James Nicholls (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine) What's the problem?: Ideology, contingency and 'evidence' in recent UK alcohol policy John Greenaway (University of East Anglia) A perennially awkward issue: The Labour Party and alcohol Phil Mellows (Independent) The dialectic of drink: Alcohol and the neoliberal state	Riina Raudne (Johns Hopkins University) Entanglement of historical drinking culture and newly liberal political economy in post-Soviet Estonia Stephen and Sarah Siff (Miami University / Ohio State University) Red menace / drug menace: Anticommunism and the American War on Drugs	Charles Ambler (University of Texas) Decolonization and drug regulation Waltraud Ernst (Oxford Brookes University) Alcohol in India Phillipe Bourmaud (University of Lyon 3) Inter-imperial drug control: Anti-hashish policy in Syria and Lebanon during World War II
11.00 – 11.30 Lower ground café Tea and coffee

11.30 – 12.30 John Snow A KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Professor Paul Gootenberg (Stony Brook University): Controlling cocaine: Policy ‘blowback’ and the hemispheric-historical origins of the Mexican Drug War, 1900-2000
12-30 – 1.30 Lower ground café Lunch
1.30 – 3.00 Parallel sessions 6
6.1 Room LG 6 Developing models of control Chair: Prof Scott Martin	6.2 Room LG 7 Trafficking drugs Chair: Prof Paul Gootenberg	6.3 Room John Snow A Gender, deviance and alcohol Chair: Dr David Beckingham
Greg Ryan (Lincoln University) ‘The tornado that circles round the liquor question’: New Zealand anti-Prohibition arguments and strategies c. 1890-1930 Stephanie Olsen (Max Planck Institute) British Bands of Hope: Educating children through temperance Arjo van der Hoogte and Toine Pieters (University of Utrecht) Production, consumption and regulatory trajectories of cocaine in the Netherlands, 1880-1930	Steffen Rimner (Harvard University) Transnational journalism, Japanese drug trafficking, global opposition, 1915-21 Kostis Gkotsinas (Ecole des Hautes Etudes, Paris) Drugs and crime in inter-war Greece Jie Sun (Shanghai University) ATS in China: New challenges and policy options	Lauren Saxton (The Graduate Center CUNY) Motherhood, drink and nation: The female alcoholic in national context Stella Moss (Royal Holloway, University of London) ‘Red biddy ruin’: Methylated spirit consumption and the control of deviant drinking in interwar Britain Thora Hands (University of Strathclyde) Treating the mad, the bad and the drunk: Medical institutional responses to the problems of inebriety in Scotland c. 1879-1914
3.00 – 3.15 Break
3.15 – 4.45 Parallel sessions 7
7.1 Room LG 6 Drink, drugs and citizenship Chair: Prof James Simpson	7.2 Room LG 7 Prohibiting cannabis Chair: Dr Dan Malleck	7.3 Room John Snow A Alcohol, media and youth Chair: Dr James Nicholls
Noelle Plack (Newman University) Citizens or criminals: Popular drinking, tax revolts and social control in the French Revolution Howard Padwa (UCLA) Citizenship: A common bond between control and treatment Will Haydock (Bournemouth University) Regulating the carnivaleque: Rationality, responsibility and distinction in the Coalition Government’s Alcohol Strategy	Neil Boyd (Simon Fraser University) The criminalization of cannabis and regulatory prospects: Lessons from Canada Isaac Campos (University of Cincinnati) A cross-examination of Bonnie and Whitebread: The view from the border Adam Rathge (Boston College) Far from the border: The origins of cannabis prohibition in Massachusetts 1906-17	Christine Griffin (University of Bath) Snap/ star: Celebritising the self, young adults, social media, and the culture of intoxication Aotearoa, New Zealand Fiona Hutton (Victoria University) Consuming cultures: gender, alcohol and Facebook Lesley Smith: Oxford Brookes University Alcohol marketing and drinking behaviours

4.45 – 5.00 Lower ground café Tea and coffee
5.00 – 6.00 John Snow A KEYNOTE PRESENTATION Professor Virginia Berridge (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine): History and horizon scanning – What does the future hold for drugs, alcohol and tobacco?
6.30 -7.30 John Snow A FRINGE EVENT Keppel Street Band of Hope Evening Meeting Temperance songs and readings led by Annemarie Mcallister
Sunday June 23rd
9.30 – 11.30 Parallel sessions 8
8.1 Room LG 6 Policy making at the political process Chair: Dr Alex Mold	8.3 Room LG7 Representing addiction Chair: Dr James Kneale
Karen Duke (Middlesex University) Evidence, experts and advocates: The case of substitute prescribing policy in Britain Esben Houborg (Aarhus University) Safe injection sites as a matter of concern Jacek Moskalewicz (Warsaw Institute of Psychiatry and Neurology) Stakeholders' views on methadone maintenance and its position in drug treatment in Poland	Ingrid Walker (University of Washington) Message in a bottle: Pro- and anti-drug narratives in contemporary US media Robert Stephens (Virginia Tech) Projecting the truth about addiction Steve Earnshaw (Sheffield Hallam University) Drink: dissolution: antibiography
11.30 – 12.00 Lower ground café Tea and coffee

12.00 – 1.30 Parallel sessions 9
9.1 Room LG 6 War and drugs Chair: Prof Neil Boyd	9.2 Room LG 7 The ethics of drug control Chair: Dr Noelle Plack	9.3 Room LG 8 Quantifying risk Chair: Dr Will Haydock
Chris Hallam (London School of Hygiene and Tropical Medicine) Morphia and morale: Drug control in World War II Britain Jonathan Hobbs (Independent) Psychedelics and the British military John Collins (London School of Economics) Exporting the US drug control model during World War II, 1939-45	Constanza Sánchez Avilés (Swansea University) The international drug control regime and the global drug 'problem': Evolution, obstacles to change and alternative policies Alex Kreit (Thomas Jefferson School of Law) Drug War defectors William L. Marcy (SUNY, Buffalo) The end of civil war, the rise of narcotrafficking and the implementation of the Merida initiative in Central America	Annemarie Mcallister (University of Central Lancashire) Risk as presented to children: Temperance teaching in the Band of Hope James Kneale (UCL) Moderate drinking before the unit: Medicine and life assurance in Britain and the US c. 1860-1930 Dan Malleck (Brock University) Habitual risk: Insurance, professional authority and the medicalization of addiction in the 19th century